EXPLORING THE UN CONVENTIONAL

Before your event, or when the doors close on the last day of your convention, explore the “un” conventional stylings that enhance Galveston Island.

Outdoor Recreation

The mild weather on the Island enables visitors to enjoy the outdoors year-round. Sandy beaches, golfing, fishing, birding, volleyball, horseback riding, biking, kayaking – the ways to enjoy the Island are infinite.

Championship Golf

The Galveston Country Club was founded in 1898, making it the oldest private country club in Texas. This 18-hole, championship course is situated on the Island’s west end, next to Lake Como. Galveston’s municipal golf course recently underwent a $14 million redesign courtesy of PGA pros Jacobsen Hardy Golf Course Design. This links-style, par 72 course is lushly landscaped and flanked by Syndor Bayou – an ideal venue for group outings.

Miles and Miles of Gulf Coast Beaches

With 32 miles of beautiful beaches and temperate weather year-round, it’s easy to experience a sun-drenched day of surfing, sailing, pier or charter fishing, swimming or simple relaxation.

Venues and Attractions

Experience Galveston’s legendary history, view the architecture of yesteryear, shop till you drop, wine and dine or simply enjoy the mild tropical climate. Whatever your fancy, there’s no shortage of things to do in Galveston.

Dining Out in Galveston

The array of dining options on Galveston Island reflects its flavorful and impressive history. Schedule an upscale function in our AAA award-winning Steakhouse or one of our popular seafood restaurants, or entertain your group at the hip H2o ultra lounge. Whatever your needs, Galveston’s restaurants fit the bill.

Private Functions and Group Dining

Many of our resort establishments offer private dining facilities designed to accommodate large groups, meetings or other off-site venues. Small or large, simple or sublime, there are ample options to satisfy every palate – and budget.

Island Nightlife

The fun doesn’t end when the sun sets on the Island. Contemporary dance clubs, lounges and an assortment of other events comprise an eclectic and exciting nightlife.

Cruises from Galveston

Set sail on a cruise ship bound for domestic or international ports of call – a perfect way to start or finish your productive meeting or convention.
