THE SAN LUIS RESORT TAKES HOME 10 ‘BEST OF GALVESTON’ AWARDS

2015 awards highlight the best in dining, arts & entertainment, lodging and more

GALVESTON, TEXAS — The San Luis Resort is truly the best in Galveston, as highlighted by the Galveston.com 2015 Best of Galveston Awards. The resort was awarded in 10 categories in the yearly contest, which has been called ‘the Oscars of the Gulf Coast’ by the Houston Chronicle.

During October 2015, thousands of visitors to Galveston.com nominated hundreds of Galveston Island businesses, organizations and people for the Best of Galveston awards. From the nominees, the top five vote-receivers continued to the voting phase, which was held during the months of November and December, 2015.

The award winning Steakhouse, which offers a menu inspired by simplicity, approachable elegance and timeless Gulf Coast dishes, was presented the gold award for ‘Best Hotel Restaurant.’ Additionally, the restaurant was given the silver award for ‘Best Steak’ and the bronze award in the ‘Best Fine Dining’ and ‘Best Restaurant for a Romantic Dinner’ categories.

The San Luis Resort was well represented, taking home the top prize for ‘Best Hotel Balcony,’ ‘Best Hotel Pool,’ and ‘Best Luxury Hotel.’ The San Luis Bar was awarded with the silver award for ‘Best Hotel Bar’ and Spa San Luis was awarded the silver award for ‘Best Spa.’

Other Landry’s, Inc. concepts on Galveston Island were also recognized in the contest. Saltgrass Steakhouse was awarded the gold award for ‘Best Chicken Fried Steak’ and ‘Best Steak.’ Landry’s Seafood House was given the bronze award for ‘Best Appetizer,’ Rainforest Café was voted the best restaurant for kids on Galveston Island, and Fisherman’s Wharf took home a silver award for ‘Best Seafood.’ Additionally, the Hilton Galveston Island Resort was awarded bronze for ‘Best Hotel Balcony’ and the Galveston Island Historic Pleasure Pier was awarded silver for ‘Best Family Venue.’ Tilman Fertitta was awarded ‘Best Galvestonian’ and ‘Visionary.’
