THE SAN LUIS RESORT TAKES HOME 'BEST CAESAR PRESENTATION' AT CAESAR SALAD COMPETITION

GALVESTON, TX – The San Luis Resort was awarded the 'Best Caesar Presentation' at the 31st Annual Caesar Salad Competition at the Hilton University of Houston on October 9. The competition allowed chefs from the Houston area's finest restaurants to create Caesar salads to compete for four coveted awards: Consumer's Choice, Most Creative, Best Presentation and Classic.

"Winning the 'Best Presentation' award at the Caesar Salad competition is a true source of pride for the entire team at The San Luis," said Chris Benis, Director of Food and Beverage. "We are proud to provide an elevated culinary experience at The San Luis, and this accolade is a remarkable vote of confidence to our continued commitment to excellence."

Executive Chef Phil Bouza and his team created a delectable charred baby red romaine 'Caesar Martini' to take home the prize for best presentation. The salad was topped with blackened gulf coast shrimp, roasted jalapeno avocado feta dressing, a cream goat cheese crouton and a marinated grape tomato. The salad was accompanied by Wild Berry Lemonade, made with Cruzan blueberry lemonade rum, wild blueberries, lemon sour, simple syrup and club soda.
