GALVESTON, TEXAS — Head down to the Island for a delightful Easter brunch and poolside egg hunt at The San Luis Resort, Spa & Conference Center. Chef Brian Robertson, executive chef, promised a menu and selections sure to please gourmands of all statures, Sunday, March 31 from 11am-2 pm.

“We’ve given the traditional Easter brunch an update, a dash of sizzle and a glint of tradition,” said Robertson.

Robertson and his team have created a menu that treats diners to a traditional Easter feast with carved-to-order molasses glazed bone-in-ham or peppered prime rib of beef with horseradish cream and béarnaise sauce.

Chef has created a sumptuous line up of stations including Mashed Potato Station, Breakfast Staples, a Raw Bar, Carving Station, Custom Omelets and specialty desserts. Celebrants will also be treated to generously hosted Champagne, mimosas and wine and added sides of chopped salad, seafood pasta, antipasto display, lobster bisque, house smoked salmon, chicken Francaise on wilted spinach with boursin cheese sauce, beef Bourguignon, blackened red fish beurre blanc, potatoes au gratin and more.

“Easter is a wonderful time of year and we’re pulling out the stops to bring our guests and visitors a traditional Easter celebration,” Michelle Beckwith, area director of catering & special events.
