Break for Spring at Galveston's San Luis Resort

It's the perfect time to plan your Spring Break getaway to Texas' treasured Galveston Island. Whether it's to soak up the sun, enjoy the island's rich history, get a dose of laid back gulf coast fun or all of the above, your paradise awaits at The San Luis Resort, Spa & Conference Center.

"There's no better place to escape for spring break," said Paul Schultz, Vice President of Hospitality for Landry's Hotel Division. "The Island is rich with history, family traditions and easy-to-access relaxation."

The 16-story San Luis Resort, Spa & Conference Center offers 250 luxurious guestrooms and magnificent views of the Gulf of Mexico with the finest in award-winning dining, overnight accommodations and first-class service for families seeking a respite from the pace of life.

The resort's family experts have loaded two consecutive weeks with daily activities and experiences for kids of all ages and interests. Begin the week with a Luau, complete with poolside Hawaiian music, Limbo and Hula Hoop contests, tropical cocktails and mocktails served ala coconut and a lei for everyone at check-in. A'hoy Mateys- join the SS San Luis for a Pirate Day filled with treasure maps and treasure chests, pirate stories, a visit from Phydias the pirate parrot, eye patches and swords for visiting buccaneers.

Guests are also treated to a San Luis Scavenger Hunt and are invited to enjoy complimentary pool butler services including: sea mineral spritzes- perfect for after sun exposure, sunglass polishing- safe for use on SPF lenses, Aloe Vera gel sampling, hand-passed frozen fruits and cold hand towels infused with refreshing lemongrass oil.

Explore the island by bicycle with a rented bicycle from the resort's favorite shop located in the lower parking lot near IHOP from 7 am to 7 pm. If you're creative and love a sweet treat, pastry decorating with the chef will be held throughout the week at Blake's Bistro- chef hats will be provided for all! Keep your eyes peeled for various Rainforest Café mascots appearing throughout the day to meet and mingle with guests or stop by the kids spa, Doll It Up, located off the hotel lobby for a buff and polish service for the little one's fingers and toes, as well as temporary tattoos, hair braids, neon hair clip-in extensions, hair color rubs and hair wraps; services available 12pm- 6pm. And don't miss an afternoon of BINGO, where great prizes will be up for grabs and s'mores nightly by the pool.

For grown-ups there's Spa San Luis' top shelf pampering with body gommages, hydrotherapies or an in-room couple's massage or check out the fitness center, boutique and full service salon.

A trip to the tropical heated pool and grotto spa is easily complemented by H2o Ultra Lounge's swim up bar and private cabanas, exclusively available for rental to overnight guests. And for the kiddos there's always the waterslide and plunge pool.

Guests of The San Luis Resort can purchase ability discounted Pleasure Pier All Day Ride Passes or upgrade your reservation to a Stay & Play package and the kiddos will receive a Pleasure Pier theme welcome amenity! Or use promo code STAY and save 30% off your stay when you stay three nights
